

Programs

Student Wellness at UNC was established to enhance the health of the entire university community using industry-leading, standards-based research and tactics. We've introduced programs and Initiatives that address the issues which most commonly impact the physical and mental well-being of the student population, all proven to be effective in supporting a healthy life experience and helping improve academic performance.

---

Source URL: <https://studentwellness.unc.edu/programs>