Resources for Identity Based and Sexual Harassment Survivors and Advocates

http://safe.unc.edu/get-info/identity-based-harassment/
http://safe.unc.edu/get-info/sexual-harassment/

Table of Contents

UNC Chapel Hill Campus Resources ........................................... 2
  Harassment Prevention and Education ...................................... 2
  Survivor Support .................................................................. 2
  Reporting Identity-Based and Sexual Harassment ...................... 2
  Advocate Resources ................................................................ 3
  Community Resources ........................................................... 4
UNC Chapel Hill Campus Resources

Harassment Prevention and Education

Student Wellness
Offers educational resources and skills training programming about identity-based and sexual harassment prevention.
919.966.3658 • http://campushealth.unc.edu/wellness

Carolina Women’s Center
Offers educational programming about interpersonal violence, including sexual harassment.
919.962.8305 • http://womenscenter.unc.edu

Survivor Support

Counseling & Psychological Services
Offers confidential, free individual and group counseling for UNC students. Students can walk-in for immediate assistance, Monday through Friday, 9 am – 12 pm and 1 pm – 4 pm.
919.966.3658 (office hours) • 919.966.2281 (crisis line after hours) • http://campushealth.unc.edu/caps

The University Ombuds Office
Offers confidential, informal, impartial, and independent place for Carolina staff, faculty, students and administrators come and talk in confidence about any campus issue, problem, or dispute. The office supplements, but does not replace, the University’s formal channels, such as the grievance policy. The Ombuds Office can be contacted as a first step, as a last resort, or anywhere along the way.
919.843.8204 • http://www.ombuds.unc.edu/

Reporting Identity-Based and Sexual Harassment

Department of Public Safety
Takes full and blind reports of assaults in-person, investigates and participates in appropriate legal or judicial action. Accepts anonymous reports through Silent Witness web form (http://www.dps.unc.edu/Forms/Silent%20Witness/silentwitness.cfm) or over the phone at Crime Stoppers (919-942-7515). Offers self defense classes and community education programs.
919.962.8100 (non-emergency) • 911 (emergency) • http://www.dps.unc.edu

Office of the Dean of Students
Advises survivors and allies of options; accepts anonymous, blind, and full reports; helps students access services, e.g. “no contact” orders and safe housing. Assists survivors with filing a complaint through the Grievance Process and/or a report through the Honor System (as applicable).
919.966.4042 • http://deanofstudents.unc.edu

Department of Housing & Residential Education
Provides a reporting avenue and initial response options to survivors through live-on professionals and 24-

Updated May 2013
hour duty response protocols. Contact your Community Director, Resident Advisor, or RA on call.
http://housing.unc.edu/

LGBTQ Center¹
Supports a safe inclusive environment for UNC-Chapel Hill students of all sexualities, gender identities and gender expressions. Can help with filing harassment reports with the university as well as obtaining civil No-Contact Orders.
919.843.5376 • http://lgbtq.unc.edu/

Student Legal Services
Free legal advice on (almost) any matter to eligible full time Carolina students.
919.962.1303 • http://www.unc.edu/student/orgs/sls/ 40

Deputy Title IX Student Complaint Coordinator
Housed in Student Affairs, the Deputy Title IX Student Complaint Coordinator serves students who would like to discuss and pursue campus reporting and judiciary processes in cases of sexual harassment, including sexual misconduct. The Student Complaint Coordinator is an impartial party and works with both students filing complaints and responding students to ensure a fair process is followed and all university options are provided. The current Deputy Title IX Student Complaint Coordinator is EW Quimbaya-Winship.
919.843.3878 • SASB North, Suite 1125 • eqw@unc.edu

Equal Opportunity/ADA Office
Receives, investigates, and works collaboratively to resolve complaints of harassment and/or discrimination. Complaints with HR must be filed within 180 calendar days of the most recent event of alleged prohibited harassment or discrimination; however, to preserve grievance rights to the issue, employees must file the complaint within 30 calendar days of the event. Offers training and education programs on harassment and discrimination prevention and other equal opportunity/ADA topics.
919.966.3576 • http://equalopportunity-ada.unc.edu/index.htm

Human Resources
Provides educational workshops and training, mediation and facilitation, on sexual harassment for UNC employees. Offers mediation and facilitation to UNC employees with conflicts. HR can assist in policy interpretation and help both employees and supervisors think through available options for addressing situations and approaching work-related conversations.
919.843.2300 • http://hr.unc.edu/

Advocate Resources

Office of Diversity and Multicultural Affairs
Lead by the vice provost for diversity and multicultural affairs who serves as the chief diversity officer for the University and advises the executive vice chancellor and provost and the chancellor on diversity policies and issues. Collaborates with senior University officers and campus units to identify and implement strategies and initiatives for achieving the goals of increased diversity and for building an inclusive environment.
919.962.0202 • http://www.unc.edu/diversity/ 41

¹ The LGBTQ Center also offers resources and programming for advocates and allies.
American Indian Center
Facilitates the inclusion of the American Indian peoples into the learning environment of the Carolina community. Offers scholarships for American Indian students, conducts community outreach, and researches the history of American Indian peoples.
919.843.4189 • http://americanindiancenter.unc.edu/

The Sonja Haynes Stone Center for Black Culture and History
The work of the Stone Center includes scholarship and scholarly initiatives, cultural programming, and social justice outreach and community programming.
919.962.9001 • http://sonjahaynesstonectr.unc.edu/

International Student and Scholar Services
Advising and counseling services for foreign students and scholars including personal advising and cross-cultural adjustment. Referral to other campus support services is common.
919.962.5661 • http://oisss.unc.edu/

Community Resources

UNC Hillel
UNC Hillel is the foundation for Jewish campus life at UNC-CH providing effective religious, cultural services and social programming for the Jewish students of NC. UNC Hillel is an affiliate of the International Hillel Foundation.
919.942.4057 • http://www.nchillel.org/home/campuslife/uncchapelhill/aboutus.aspx

The Compass Center for Women and Families
Offers crisis counseling, support groups, emergency shelter placement, as well as court and personal advocacy.
201 East Rosemary Street, Chapel Hill • 24-hour hotline 919-929-7122 • www.fvpcoc.org/

Orange County Rape Crisis Center
Offers crisis counseling, support groups, hospital/police station accompaniment, as well as court and personal advocacy.
1506 East Franklin Street, Suite 302, Chapel Hill • 24-hour hotline 866.935.4783 • http://www.ocrcc.org/

Other Local Police Departments:
Carrboro Police Department, http://www.townofcarrboro.org/pd/default.htm, 919-918-7397
Orange County Sheriff’s Office, http://www.co.orange.nc.us/sheriff/index.htm, 919-644-3050

Updated May 2013